Founder and Leadership

Mira Hospitality was founded and pioneered by Emile Sakhel, whose path to hospitality leadership is rooted in discipline, precision, and service. Emile began his professional career in anesthesia, where attention to detail, risk management, and performance under pressure are non negotiable. That same mindset became the foundation of his transition into real estate, revenue management, and luxury hospitality operations.

Mira Hospitality is led alongside his wife, Sarah Sakhel, whose expertise blends Southern hospitality, short term rental specialization, and hands on leadership across construction, design, and operations. Sarah is known for creating warm, functional guest experiences while maintaining operational discipline, design integrity, and five star execution across every stay. Together, they steward each property with the belief that thoughtful design, functional guest flow, and disciplined revenue strategy must coexist to create enduring asset value and exceptional guest experiences.

Clients experience 50 to 65 percent higher revenue outcomes while preserving privacy, brand integrity, and long term asset value.
