7276 Kiva Way Construction Note from Contractor

This home has all custom made doors and windows. Fabricated and Constructed with stainless steel frames. Like no other residential installations in the area. Truly 1 of a kind.
Then sent to to a powder coat company to be powder coated completely in black.
After shipping them to job site they were Installed by master craftsman.
Then after all new hurricane glass was installed, they were painted with special exterior paint. To the color that was chosen by the client.
There's no other installation in the area that will compare to this project installation that was especially built for this home and gulf coast area.